

ZuSudo: Migration from South-East Europe - Enabling participation & cohesion at the municipal level

Team

Responsible Prof. Dr. Ludger Pries

Coordination Dr. Christian Schramm

Staff M.A. Andreea Nagy, Romyana Shopova, Leif Tietz

Implementation

Ruhr-Universität
Bochum

Funding

Stiftung Mercator

Duration

April 2021 – June 2024

Web

eu2migraruhr.eu

Aims

Support municipalities as places of arrival and negotiation of participation

- Aligning the orientation of municipal integration work with the orientations of migrants
- Promoting (transnational) cooperation between municipal and other actors
- Providing arguments for municipal engagement at higher political levels (state, federal, EU)

Increase participation opportunities for immigrants

- Making visible the complexity of migration and participation experiences, skills & needs

Strengthen migrant organisations

Methods

Mixed Methods

- Survey with 600 interviews (507 in arrival, 93 in origin)
- 10 Qualitative interviews with migrants & protocols
- 50 Expert interviews with municipalities and organisations

Participative approach, action research

- Round tables and networking events with practitioners
- International Spring School
- Conferences in the Ruhr Area and in Romania

Outputs

- Research report
- Policy papers

